Tutoring Experience

With nearly two decades of experience, I've had the privilege of guiding IB, A-Level, and GCSE students through the intricacies of psychology. My teaching focuses on deepening students' understanding of both core theories and complex psychological studies, helping them gain confidence in their analytical and written skills.

Throughout my career, I've worked with students from diverse backgrounds, from those studying locally in Sweden to those pursuing international curricula. My extensive experience as an IB Examiner has also allowed me to provide insight into what examiners look for, helping students develop a precise, structured approach to their exam responses.

My students frequently advance to prestigious universities, many expressing that the foundational skills and knowledge they acquired in our sessions were instrumental to their success. Supporting students as they progress from secondary to higher education has been one of the most rewarding aspects of my career.
