Tutoring Experience

With over a decade of experience, I've guided students through the intricacies of IB and A-Level History, fostering their understanding of complex historical topics. My tutoring style is focused on comprehensive historical knowledge, and my students consistently reach high academic standards in their exams and coursework.

Beyond history, I've supported students in political science and geography, ensuring they can apply analytical and research skills across disciplines. Working with a range of curriculums, I help students navigate both theoretical and practical aspects of their studies, preparing them for university-level success.
